

SurfPoint® Software brief description

(July 2005)

User surface

Surface	intuitive, very easy to use, based on the most widely known browser (IE)
Direct access	www, personal Mailbox, freely definable links (for free / to pay), any chosen application (ex. MS Office, MSN Messenger, etc.)
Multilingual	menu in English, French and German
Comfort	with standard mouse and keyboard

Design and advertisement

Flash animations	customary, matching the environment
Screensaver	freely designable and renewable

Security

Controlled access	to individual stations, drives and hardware components
Shielded system-sw	locked windows key, protected BIOS
RebornCard	resets the system with every start up
Constrictable web-access	child protection assistant for violence, porn, etc.
Save dial-up	through ADSL or Hi-Speed
Hardware WatchDog	automatic restart after a system crash with remaining credit account

Features

E-Mail Client	to send e-mails to one or several people and check the personal mailbox
Electronic postcards	with freely definable motives
Videos and snapshots	taken by the local web-cam may be sent as electronic postcards or e-mail-attachments
Digicam photos	administration and posting through built in flash card reader
Direct links	frei definierbare Seiten gratis oder kostenpflichtig anbieten
Local software	may be enabled and accessed by a feature button (eg. games, Putty, Skype...), including MSN or Yahoo Messenger and other Chatrooms
Office-readiness	of any station if desired
Peripheral devices	connecting scanner, printer, etc.

Payment options

Any station may be provided free of charge or with one or several of the following payment options.

The possibilities	coin checker (CHF, Euro)	PrePaid
	bill reader (CHF, Euro)	CashCard credit card (Mastercard, Visa)

may be integrated separately or in combination. Tariffs are freely definable.

remote maintenance

Remote access	The webserver based software enables access to any station at any time, for maintenance, new-configuration, and statistics.
User statistics	may be accessed online at any time and delivered by mail at chosen intervals